Over the past forty years, Ian Wallace has made thousands of school and library visits in tiny communities, towns and huge cities all across this land. Some of these visits have inspired young readers to become artists themselves; others have moved children to speak or act in new ways; others have simply given rise to the laughter and sheer delight that come from a good book. In return, Ian has been the recipient of many gifts himself, from the wide range of experiences he has had to the mementos made by young children or artists in the communities he has visited. All these gifts come together in his cabinet of curiosities -- an eclectic and personal collection that nonetheless represents and appreciates our rich and varied land. Each double-page illustration shows a shelf in the cabinet dedicated to a province or territory with the gifts or special memories Ian has from that place -- tamarack geese made by Cree artists in northern Ontario, a fishing-stage facade from Newfoundland, the giant redwoods in Cathedral Grove on Vancouver Island, and much more.

Always experimenting with new techniques, Ian has illustrated the entire book in delicate graphite pencil, achieving stunning light and shadow. This is a beautiful and unusual contribution to Canada's 150th birthday. Includes an introduction and notes on the illustrations. A Little Round Panda on the Big Blue Earth Big Blue Earth "Starting with a baby panda in a bamboo forest, this richly illustrated poem illuminates a unique geography perspective, showcasing China's environment with ever-widening views from forest to terraced farms to village and city, country, continent, ocean, and finally the planet in space. Endsheets include a map of Asia labeling places shown"-- Shark Nate-O little bee books Nate loves sharks. He reads shark books every day, watches sharks on TV, and talks about them nonstop. He even likes to pretend he's a shark wherever he goes! However, there is one small problem. . . . Nate can't swim. When his older brother points this out, Nate works hard to overcome his fears and learn how to blow bubbles, use a kickboard, and finally swim without help, as quickly and as gracefully as a shark. Will he be able to beat his brother in a swim tryout and get his bite back? Kids will love this jawsome book complete with vibrant and whimsical art and a list of shark facts in the back! What's New at the Zoo? Presents the lyrics to a song from the Broadway musical, "Do Re Mi," in which animals in an overcrowded zoo beg to be let out while accidentally stepping on one another's trunks, quills, and toes. Chicken Or Egg Who Comes First? Magination Press Chicken and Egg compete in sports, on tests, and in other ways until they discover that winning and losing are less fun than playing together. Oscar Lives Next Door A Story Inspired by Oscar Peterson's Childhood Owlkids Meet Oscar Peterson, who will someday become a legendary jazz pianist. He started out as a boy who loved to play the trumpet, until tuberculosis left his lungs too weak to blow the horn. Farmer Falgu Goes to the Kumbh Mela Karadi Tales Picturebooks Farmer Falgu visits the Kumbh Mela in the vibrant city of Allahabad, in the third book in this popular series. What Are You Doing? Groundwood Books Ltd A picture book that captures a child's discovery of the power of reading. Before he leaves for his first day of school, Chepito runs outside to play. He comes across all kinds of people in his neighborhood who are reading. "Why, why, why?" he sings, and they each have a different answer for him, whether it's a man reading a newspaper, a young girl enjoying a comic, a couple of tourists consulting a guidebook or an archeologist studying hieroglyphics. Later that day, Chepito discovers the fun of reading for himself, and he even brings home a book to share with his little sister. Elisa Amado has written a perfect introduction to the pleasures and uses of the written word. Set in a delightfully retro world by illustrator Manuel Monroy, this book is a true celebration of reading. Correlates to the Common Core State Standards in English Language Arts: CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RL.K.4 Ask and answer questions about unknown words in a text. CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RL.1.2 Retell stories, including key details, and demonstrate understanding of their central message or lesson. Dad, Jackie, and Me In Brooklyn, New York, in 1947, a boy learns about discrimination and tolerance as he and his deaf father share their enthusiasm over baseball and the Dodgers' first baseman, Jackie Robinson. Old Whiskers Escapes! A Grandpa President Adventure Benjamin Harrison Presidential Site, Incorporated Old Whiskers' Escape is a children's picture book that tells the true story - reported by newspapers of the day - of President Benjamin Harrison's pet goat that lived on the White House grounds. The goat often was spotted taking the president's grandchildren on wagon rides on the lawn but one day escaped with Grandson Baby McKee in tow. In a scene that would be impossible in today's age of Secret Service staffing and presidential security, President Harrison - upon discovering the goat was missing - went running down Pennsylvania Avenue in hot pursuit, his top hat in one hand and cane in the other. The story, delightful in its own right, will offer readers surprising insight into Indianas only president, the popularity of presidential pets at the White House during the 19th Century, and the enduring relationships between grandparents and their grandchildren - regardless of grandpa's station in life. Written by Donna Griffin and illustrated by Gary Varvel, the book includes four pages of rich historical sidebars, including primary sources documenting the great goat caper, fun facts about presidential pets, and information about the Benjamin Harrison Presidential Site in Indianapolis, a museum home that tells the life story of America's centennial president. "This goat book is the G.O.A.T. It's easier to devour than a tin can!" - Alexandra Petri, The Washington Post "A charming kids' tale from a bygone era when the toughest problem of the day for Benjamin Harrison, our 23rd president, was his runaway pet goat Old Whiskers. Harrison's take-charge remedy -- chasing down the goat that was pulling a cart with his grandchildren into streets around the White House -- could be cheered by Americans of all political stripes." - Deborah Pines, The New York Post. Princess Easy Pleasy Karadi Tales Picturebooks Princess Easy Pleasy insists on bringing all her prized possessions along on her dreaded family vacations.
