KEY=BOOK - MOODY EMILIANO

The World Book Encyclopedia An encyclopedia designed especially to meet the needs of elementary, junior high, and senior high school students. The Book is Dead Long Live the Book UNSW Press "... books are machines for reading"--P. 161. Art Information and the Internet How to Find it, How to Use It Routledge In the first book of its kind, art information expert Lois Swan Jones discusses how to locate visual and textual information on the Internet and how to evaluate and supplement that information with material from other formats--print sources, CD-ROMS, documentary videos, and microfiche sets--to produce excellent research results. The book is divided into three sections: Basic Information Formats; Types of Websites and How to Find Them; and How to Use Web Information. Jones discusses the strengths and limitations of Websites; scholarly and basic information resources are noted; and search strategies for finding pertinent Websites are included. Art Information and the Internet also discusses research methodology for studying art-historical styles, artists working in various media, individual works of art, and non-Western cultures--as well as art education, writing about art, problems of copyright, and issues concerning the buying and selling of art. This title will be periodically updated. Social Science Resources in the Electronic Age: World history Greenwood Publishing Group Reference Skills for the School Librarian: Tools and Tips, 3rd Edition ABC-CLIO This book is a user-friendly guide for K-12 librarians, teachers, and school library media specialists that covers all major areas in reference, from the reference interview to encyclopedias and dictionaries. PC Mag PCMag.com is a leading authority on technology, delivering Labs-based, independent reviews of the latest products and services.
